

THOMAS, MORRIS

August 12, 1888-December 30, 1953

Funeral services for Morris Thomas, 65, prominent Bordeaux rancher, who passed away December 30, following an extended illness, were conducted at the Schrader chapel last Saturday, January 2, at two p.m., with the Rev. J.B. Milstead officiating. Pallbearers were Ralph Allison, Herb Graves, Earl Ritter, Jack Phillipi, A.E. Hoffman, and Eldon Allison. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mr. Thomas was a life-time resident of Wyoming, having been born in Cheyenne, August 12, 1888. He had lived in the Bordeaux vicinity since 1914. He was married April 8, 1914 to Mary Prah, who survives him. A sister, Mrs. Walter Brown of Laramie, also survives the deceased.