

Calvin Wayne Thorne

May 16, 1954 – October 28, 2014

Graveside services for Calvin Wayne Thorne, 60, were held on Saturday, Nov. 1, at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, with Pastor Keith Hudiburgh of the United Methodist Church in Wheatland.

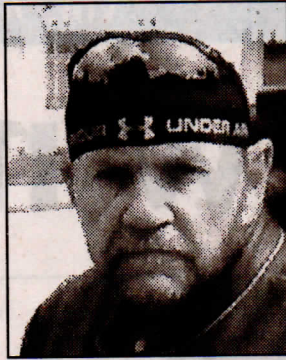

Calvin passed away Tuesday, October 28, at his home in Wheatland of natural causes.

Calvin was born on May 16, 1954 in Cheyenne, the son of Charles and Doris (Clark) Thorne.

Calvin started his degree at the University of Wyoming to start his career as an IBEW Electrician. He was a proud lifelong member of IBEW Local 415. Calvin lived in Cheyenne and Wheatland.

Calvin loved the Oakland Raiders, el caminos, riding his Harley sportster, and he loved to read old westerns.

He is survived by his daughter, Nicole Ulferts of Casper; grandchildren, Christopher Ulferts; mother, Doris Thorne of Wheatland; siblings, Terry and John Pawleska of Green River, Carolyn and Joe Costantino of Colorado Springs, Colo., Steven Thorne of Jackson, Tenn., and David Thorne of Rock Springs; nieces and nephews, Troy Pawleska, Cory Pawleska, Brianna Thorne, Brandon Thorne, Sarah Costantino, Aaron Costantino, Gabe Costantino, and Ben Costantino.

He was preceded in death by Christopher Thorne on June 8, 2008; father, Charles Thorne on Sept. 16, 2013; grandparents, Katie Clark, Lester Clark, Chuck Thorne, and Beauna Thorne.

Arrangements are under the direction of Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland.
