

THRASHER, CATHERINE LOUISE WHITE

October 3, 1857-December 19, 1937

Following a long illness, Mrs. E.J. Thrasher passed away at two a.m., December 19, 1937.

Catherine Louise White was born near Watson, Ill., October 3, 1857. She was married to Elisha T. Thrasher April 1, 1876, and this year they celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary.

Four children were born to this union, two daughters and two sons: one daughter, Minnie Mae, died in infancy, the other. Mrs. Cora L. Hall passed away in Albuquerque, N.M. on New Year's day, 1923. The two sons, C.W. and M.A. are residents of this community. Other survivors are two grandsons. L.L. Thrasher of Glen Ellvn, Ill. and Ben Hall of Taiban, N.M. and one step-child, Gladys B. Wagner of Horse Creek, Wyo. There are three grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher came to Wyoming about fifteen years ago and have operated a little store at Natwick station most of the time since then.

At an early age, she became a member of the Methodist church and kept her faith until death claimed her.

Funeral services were conducted from the chapel of the Watson and Dennis Funeral Home on Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. Wilbur P. Wood in charge. Interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.
