

Leota M. Throckmorton

January 11, 1919 - October 7, 2016

Graveside services for Leota M. Throckmorton, 97, will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12, at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, Wyoming with Pastor Andy Gudahl officiating.

Leota Throckmorton passed away Friday, Oct. 7, at the Legacy Home in Wheatland.

Leota was born Jan. 11, 1919, in Gardner, Colo., the daughter of John and Nettie (King) Kindt.

Leota married Everett Dawson in 1937 and to this union 6 children were born, Connie, Huey, Winnie, Jay, Billie, and Betty.

Some of the things she enjoyed were sewing, crocheting, raising her family, and helping Everett farm. She loved her flowers especially her Joseph's coat climbing roses and snowball bushes. She was a wonderful and caring mother and grandmother. She later married Oscar Throckmorton.

She is survived by her children, Connie Stiva-son, Huey Dawson, Winnie Atterbury, Jay Dawson all of Wheatland, Billie Nimsgern of Providence, Rhode Island, and Betty Bagenstos, Cedar Falls, Iowa; 18 grandchildren; and many great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Everett Dawson on January 11, 1967; and was the last survivor of her 12 brothers and sisters.

Serving as pallbearers will be Edward Dawson, Dale Dawson, Billy Dawson, Mike Nordeen, John Atterbury, and Joe Atterbury.

Friends and family can call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.

A memorial to the donor's choice would be appreciated by the family.

The Gorman Funeral Homes - Platte Chapel of Wheatland are in charge of the arrangements.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.gormanfh.com.
