

Robert S. Trenholm die of heart attack

Robert S. Trenholm, well known in Platte County died instantly of a heart attack, while driving at the edge of town on May 10, 1966. He was accompanied by George Gra... at the time of his death.

Mr. Trenholm had served as County Commissioner for the past 12 years. He ranched near Glendo for 27 years before retiring and moving to Wheatland to make his home three years ago. He was active in choir and music work and was to take part in the Memorial Service of the Old Grads reunion to be held Sunday.

He was a member of the Glendo Community Church and a life member of AF & AM No. 16. Mr. Trenholm was born in Wheatland December 31, 1897.

Many friends share the loss of this fine man with the surviving relatives: his wife, Virginia Cole Trenholm of Wheatland; son, James of Pueblo, Colo.; daughter, Mrs. Jack (Virginia) Philippi, Cheyenne and brother, William of Glendo. His parents Frank and Alice Trenholm preceded him in death. Seven grandchildren also survive.

Rev. Clare Olney will conduct last rites at the United Church of Christ on May 13, 10:00. Burial will be in the local cemetery.

Pallbearers will include James Hughes, Don Sommers, Gordon Wilson, George Mitchell, Herb Christensen and Earl Richard.
