

Marcia Muriel Tucker

August 27, 1931-December 5, 2000

Services for Marcia Muriel Tucker, 69, were held Thursday, Dec. 7, at 2 p.m. at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland, with Rev. Karen Chenoweth officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Tucker died Tuesday, Dec. 5, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Marcia was born August 27, 1931, in Wells County, N.D., the daughter of Claude F. and Anna (Vollmer) Aldrich. She was reared and educated in Jamestown, N.D.; graduating from Jamestown High School. She moved to Wheatland in the late 1960s and was employed at the Stockgrower's Bank as an officer and cashier until 1974, when she began her own bookkeeping business which she operated until 1983. On March 31, 1973, Marcia married Frank E. Tucker Jr. in Wheatland. She and Frank operated the local newspaper, the "Town Crier."

Marcia was a member of Women of the Moose for over 20 years, holding all the positions in that organization. She enjoyed bowling in both couple's and women's leagues.

She is survived by her husband, Frank of Wheatland; one son, Neil Hale of Atlanta, Ga.; a stepson, Tim Tucker of Denver, Colo.; four sisters, Marilyn Laughlin of Glendive, Mont., Evelyn Hennings of Carrington, N.D. Arliss Willyard of Oelwein, Iowa and Carol Foltz of Perryton, Texas.

Marcia was preceded in death by her parents; an infant son, Keith; three brothers, Raymond, Vance and Delton Aldrich; and two sisters, Ruth Dodge and Edie Clamper. Serving as pallbearers were Jim Dunham, Kenneth Cook, Joe Howard, George Good, Mark Good and Marvin Lambert. Honorary pallbearers were A.L. "Bud" Simpson and Bud Dower.

Memorials to the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home, 201 - 14th Street, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
