

TUGMON, THOMAS LEE
January 29, 1926-October 31, 1941

Thomas Lee Tugmon, 15, only son of Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Tugmon, died at the Wheatland hospital Friday, October 31. His health, which had never been very good, failed shortly after he returned from a hunting trip with his father.

He was born January 22, 1926, in Wheatland and had lived here all his life. He attended the Wheatland schools, being a Freshman this year.

Services were held from the Watson and Dennis chapel Sunday at 2:30 with Rev. Noyce in charge.

Survivors are: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Tugmon; one sister Mrs. Evelyn Marshall, besides other relatives and a host of friends.
