

John Weatherwax dies suddenly

3-30-1963
John H. Weatherwax, a lifetime resident of this area died suddenly at the George Gamblin ranch March 30. A ranch worker, Mr. Weatherwax was born in Lincoln, Nebr. Jan. 1, 1914 to Enima Mae and Charles M. Weatherwax.

Survivors include a son Charles of Casper; three daughters, Mrs. Roy (Phyllis) Gamblin of Wheatland, Mrs. Benny (Barbara) Short of Casper, and Mrs. Delmar (Helen) Bennett of Cheyenne and 12 grandchildren.

Services were conducted by Rev. Dale Scheffler at the Schrader Chapel at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, with interment in the Wheatland cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Joe Weber, Jack Gorman, Owen Short, James Clement, William Sutherland and James Angle.