

WEBER, ALBERT ROY
May 26, 1905-March 20, 1976

Funeral services for Albert Roy Weber were conducted Tuesday, March 23, 1976 by Rev. C.W. Livers at the United Methodist Church in Wheatland. Final resting place was the Wheatland Cemetery.

Pete Johnson, Richard Johnson, Fred Goetz, Albert Childers, James valentine, and Vern Vandiver served as pallbearers. Arrangements were made by Schrader-Prell Funeral Home.

Mr. Weber passed away at Platte County Memorial Hospital after a brief illness Saturday, March 20, 1976. He was 70. A resident here since 1924, he was born in Alva, Oklahoma May 26, 1905. He married Vera Brazell May 31, 1930 here in Wheatland. Mr. Weber was a self employed wheat farmer.

He was a charter member of Antelope Gap Grange since 1937, previously serving as Master. He donated the land which the Grange Hall stands on. He served on the Board of Directors of the Wheatland Co-Op. He was also a member of the Wyoming Stockgrowers and the Wyoming Wheatgrowers Associations.

In death he is survived by his widow, Vera Weber; three sons, Wayne and Willard of Wheatland and Wallace of Hamilton, Montana; eight grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Two brothers, Joseph and John, and two sisters, Mayme Collie and Caroline Harold preceded him in death.