

10-18-1986 VERA WEBER

Services for Vera Weber, 79, who died at her home, October 18, were held Monday, October 20 at 2 p.m. in the Wheatland Bible Church with Pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating.

Vera Weber was born January 4, 1907, in Roger Mills, County, Oklahoma, the daughter of Mary and Frank Brazell. At the age of nine she moved with her family to the Texas Panhandle area and then to Colorado. The family then moved to Baggs, Wyoming, where she graduated from high school in 1925. She attended the University of Wyoming and attained her teaching degree.

She taught in Platte County rural schools until her marriage to Albert Weber, May 31, 1930. The couple moved to the family wheat farm east of Wheatland where they raised their family. Albert passed away in March of 1976 and she spent her retirement years on the farm.

Survivors include three sons: Wayne Weber of Ft. Collins, CO., Wallace Weber of Hamilton, Montana, Willard Weber of Wheatland; a brother, James Brazell of Casa Grande, Ariz.; a sister, Mae Testolin of Guernsey, 7 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Besides her husband she was preceded in death by a granddaughter.

A memorial in her name has been established to the Antelope Gap Grange.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
