

WELTY, HARRIET CHURCH
June 21, 1857-March 7, 1934

Death visited the home of James Hunton at seven o'clock Wednesday evening and claimed the life of Mrs. Hunton's mother, Mrs. Harriet P. Welty who made her home here for the past two years.

Mrs. Welty was born in New York June 21, 1857. The family had resided in Canada, but at the time of Mrs. Welty's birth were over the border in "York State".

Four children survive her: Mrs. L. Harding of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Mrs. T. H. Clair of Toronto, Canada, G.W. Church, Latonia, Ky.; and Mrs. J.E. Hunton of Wheatland.

Rev. R.E. Morgan will conduct the funeral services at two o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Copley Funeral Home. Eastern Stars will conduct services at the grave.

WELTON, HARRIETT C.
June 21, 1857-March 7, 1934

Mrs. Harriett C. Welton, mother of Mrs. James Hunton, passed away Wednesday evening. While her health had not been good for some time, her recent illness only lasted a few days.

Mrs. Welton was born in northern New York state June 21, 1857. She had made her home in the Wheatland district for a number of years but at intervals had lived elsewhere.

She is survived by four children: Mrs. L.M. Harding of Calgary, Can.; Mrs. I.H. Claire of Toronto, Can.; Mrs. G.W. Church of Latonia, Ky., and Mrs. James Hunton of Wheatland.

Funeral services will be held from the Copley Funeral Chapel Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. R.E. Morgan preaching the funeral sermon. Interment will take place in the local cemetery.
