

WESTWICK, MATILDA PATRICK
March 23, 1896-September 23, 1950

Mrs. Matilda (Tillie) Westwick, a native of Platte county since 1916 died at her home one mile northwest of Wheatland Saturday morning. She was born in Iowa, March 23, 1896. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, her mother, five sisters and two brothers.

The funeral was held at the Schrader chapel at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. Long-time friends of Mrs. Westwick who served as pallbearers were Jack Gorman, Frank Scott, O.G. Alexander, John Ward, John Bohmont and Glen Lewis. Burial was at the Wheatland cemetery Wednesday morning.

Many of Mrs. Westwick's friends and relatives from all over the country flew here for the funeral. Here from Bussey, Iowa were Mrs. Anna Patrick, her mother and John and Joe Patrick, her brothers.

All five of Mrs. Westwick's sisters were here for the last simple rites. They are Mrs. Anna Stasek of Scio, Ore., Mrs. Hugh Johnston of Sugar City, Ida., Mrs. Emma Dickson of Scio, Ore., Mrs. Mary Sesock of Whiting, Ind., and Mrs. G.L. Bohmont of Wheatland.

Mrs. Westwick's three daughters, who have been caring for her for the last two weeks, are Mrs. Floyd Michael of Casper, Mrs. George Rhinehart of Mitchell, Nebr., and Miss Roberta Westwick of Wheatland. Four grandchildren also survive.

Others in attendance were Mrs. Madalene Kolecaric, her niece from Whiting, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carothers, Mrs. Bertha Carothers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carothers, and Mrs. Ina Mae Hinton, all of Douglas.