Amelia M. Whitmore ¹⁹⁸⁰

Amelia M. Whitmore, 77, died Tuesday, July 1.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 5, at 10 a.m. at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland with John Allen officiating.

Mrs. Whitmore, a Johnson County, Neb., native, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dirks. She completed high school in 1920 and attended the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

In 1929, she married Joseph H. Whitmore and the couple lived in St. Louis, Mo., until 1932 when they moved to Sioux City, Ia. The Whitmores lived in Wheatland from 1939 to 1973, when they moved to Denver.

Mrs. Whitmore is survived by her husband, Joseph H. Whitmore; her son, Dean; grandson, Dean Jr., all of Denver; her sister, Lucille Reiners; and a niece, Arlene Gerdes, of Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Whitmore was a member of the United Church of Christ and was active in the church Dorcas Society. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Pallbearers were Frank Robinson, Don Sherard, Del Landon, Jim Dunham, Herb Percy and Laurel Smith. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery. A Heart Fund memorial has been established in Mrs. Whitmore's name.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
