

Anna Mae Wilson

February 1, 1931 – March 24, 2016

Anna Mae Wilson, 85, died Mar. 24 in Cheyenne. She was born in Johnson City, Tenn. to Stella Mae King (Shipley)(Humphrey) and Wilder C. King on Feb. 1, 1931.

Anna received a Registered Nursing degree from the Capitol City School of Nursing in Washington D.C. in 1951. While training she met William Dean Wilson, who was attending George Washington Medical School. They married on Oct. 12, 1951 in Kansas City, Mo., returning to Wheatland where they lived until retirement. Along with raising four children, Anna was active in the American Red Cross Gray Ladies, the Platte County and State of Wyoming Library boards, Wyoming State Medical Society Auxiliary, League of Women Voters and a Den Mother.

son, Stella Cabot-Wilson, Claire Breitinger, Wilder Wilson, Bridger Wilson, great grandchildren Graydon Galloway, Olivia Evans, Neveah Wood-Wilson and several nieces and nephews.

Anna was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years, parents, sisters Lois Campbell (Bill), Emma Lee Onks (Buford), Violet Wilson (Clyde), Peggy Freeman (Kenneth), and brother Bill King (Marcy).

She is remembered for the mischievous twinkle in her eye, determined spirit, and unerring loyalty to family and friends.

Memorial contributions may be made to the William D. and Anna K. Wilson scholarship fund for senior pre-med students at UW and sent in Anna K. Wilson's name to: University of Wyoming Foundation, 222 South 22nd Street, Laramie, WY 82070. Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel is in charge of the cremation. Online tributes of sympathy can be sent to www.wrc-funeral.com.

A private family memorial is planned.
